Answer Key

I need help with ... using make or do

Remember

Use do when someone performs an action or for general activities.

Use make when someone constructs or builds something.

Some expressions do not follow these rules, you'll have to learn them.

MAKE	DO
dinner	my homework
the bed	the laundry
a speech	the ironing
friends	the shopping
a phone call	gymnastics
a mistake	harm
a decision	the cooking
progress	the dishes
an excuse	nothing
peace	sport
money	business
a cake	your best
